

PARZENICA POLISH FOLK DANCE GROUP BIOGRAPHY

Parzenica Polish Folk Dance group was established in 2022 in central Scotland, is a dynamic ensemble dedicated to preserving and promoting Poland's rich cultural heritage. Based in Falkirk, Scotland, the group brings the traditions of Polish folk dance to life through authentic performances that showcase the vibrant choreography, music, and costumes of Poland's diverse regions.

In addition to public performances, Parzenica is committed to education, regularly offering workshops for schools and community groups to foster an appreciation for Polish culture. The group has performed at cultural events across the UK representing Polish traditions with pride and passion.

Currently, the group is focused on expanding its collection of traditional costumes, ensuring that each performance authentically reflects Poland's unique regional identities. Parzenica Polish Folk Dance group is proud to share the spirit of Polish folklore and bring people together through the universal language of dance.

Renata Carter, the leader of the group